Incoming Freshman

December 1st is the Freshman Scholarship priority deadline. All admission materials must be postmarked by this date to receive automatic consideration for Freshman and General Scholarships. Your application for admission serves as your application for Freshman and General Scholarships. A separate application is not required for consideration of these scholarships. Tuition scholarship values are based on 2007-208 tuition rates and will automatically adjust as rates change. Priority consideration is given to students with a minimum 28 ACT or 1240 SAT score and 3.25 high school

GPA. It is recommended to all students to take both the SAT and ACT. Auburn University will convert the SAT score to the equivalent ACT score. Your consideration will be based on the higher of the two.
